Long Beach Peninsula

Project No. 15

September 12, 13, 14

From this suggested schedule you will see that the next affair is a blend of golf and a last hurrah for the vacation season. Retain this copy for updating at the breakfast briefings Sunday and Monday.

SATURDAY: As you arrive on the peninsula, turn right on Pacific Avenue in Seaview--stop at information Center and pick up visitor's guide. Check in at the Breakers Motel located at the north end of Long Beach. Attitude adjustment hour at 6:00 p.m. in Room 302, "C" Wing (where the flag is). Dinner to follow at Potlatch.

SUNDAY: 7:00 a.m. Continental breakfast at Potlatch.

9:00 a.m. Historic Oysterville. Visit the old cemetery followed by lecture in the old church observing its centennial.

11:00 a.m. Depart for Ilwaco, Fort Canby. Activities include Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center, lighthouse, and Coast Guard National Motor Lifeboat School. Open air lunch provided at State Park.

3:30 p.m. Depart for Astoria. Visit Columbia River Maritime Museum. There will be no host cocktails and dinner at Pier 11. Return to motel. Lights out.

MONDAY: 7:00 a.m. Continental breakfast at Potlatch for golfers and early beachcombers.

8:00 a.m. Depart for Surfside Golf Course.

1-2:00 p.m. Meet back at Room 302, "C" Wing, Breakers Motel. Join beachcombers. Final wind up. Liquid refreshments.

NOTES:

Final tabulation for incidental expenses will be distributed at Monday morning breakfast.

Please have along rubber soled shoes or sneaks. We will be boarding a Coast Guard boat. I would be defrocked if I invited someone on board wearing hob nailed shoes. Please wear WPA cap to help identity in group travels. Since parking can be a problem at places we visit, please double up in cars--vans most desirable.

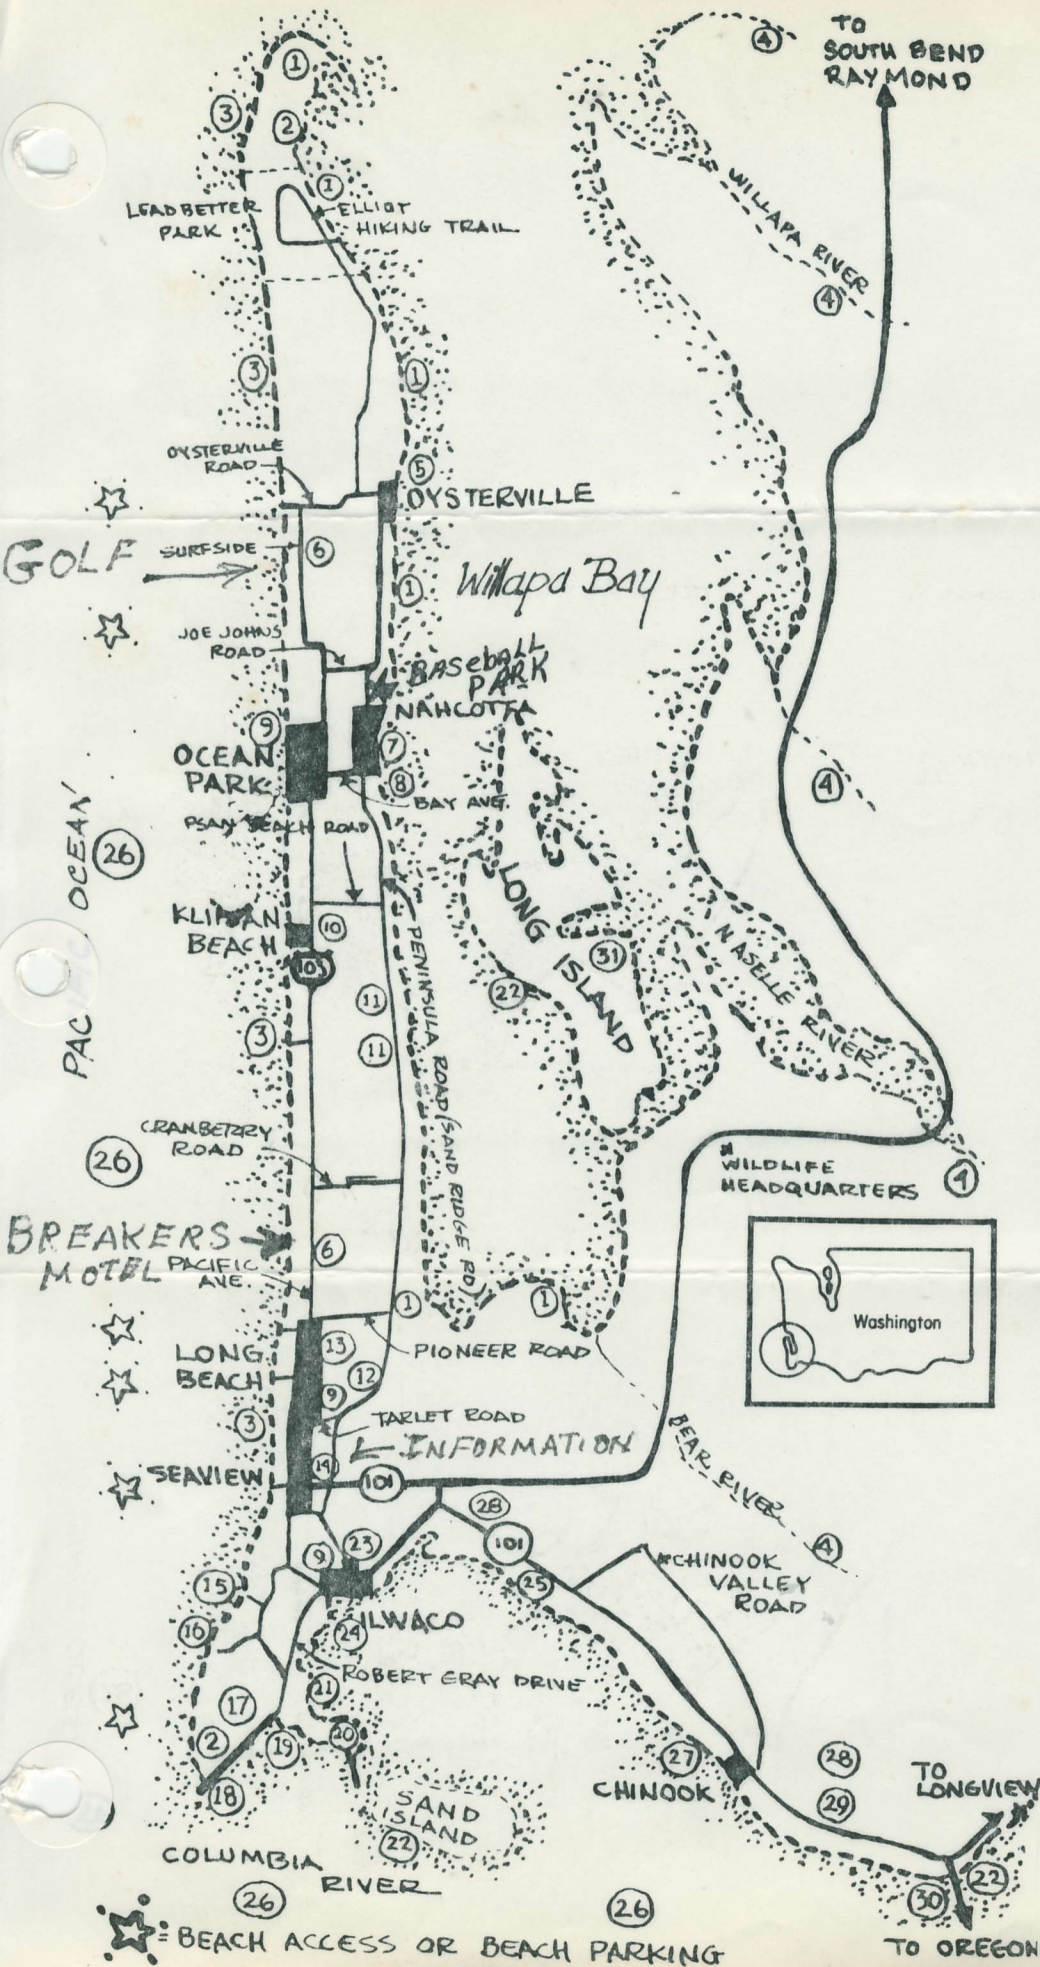

Oh yes, golf. Green fees at Surfside are $12.00. Carts: $12.00. How about a scramble this time? More sociability. Team play. Everyone must use at least two T-shirts. No penalty strokes. Sandbaggers can't prosper. Besides, I like girls.

Please specify entree choice for Saturday dinner on the half-page questionnaire below along with needed accommodations at Breakers Motel. All motel rooms are $47.50. Please return the questionnaire by September 1.
