

WPA PROJECT #6
May 21-22

CLARKSTON GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB

Stan and Mildred Bates were prepared when we rolled into Clarkston for WPA Project #6. Enlisting the help of Ray and Pat Broadhead, the Bates hosted a great event. Thanks Stan, Mildred, Ray and Pat.

Twenty golfers bruised the trees, scared cars on the highway, and, reportedly, even killed fish in the pond.

Meanwhile one of our members was creating a sticky situation for us. Emmett and Georgia Oliver were in the U.S.S.R. While there Emmett invited the Gorbachyavs to become members. Nikolai probably would fit in but Raisa might be something of a problem. After some thought we rejected Emmett's proposal since it might be too far to travel if the Gorbachav's names were drawn. It's up to Emmett to tell them of our rejection.

Stan Bates chose trees hit for special notice as recorded in the fines. Timekeeper Taylor added a new one -- short drive-- when he watched Fred Chappell hit a tree on the first tee and bounce back to the women's tee. Murray even stepped it off to be a seven yard tee shot. Poetic justice occurred a little later when our esteemed timekeeper teed up, missed the ball and pushed the ball almost a yard by the wind from his mighty swing. Short drive recordholder - Taylor, not Chappell, one yard, not seven.
