

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 15
 Surfside Golf Course, Long Beach Peninsula
 September 12-14, 1992

Never let it be said that Emmett and Georgia don't put on a party. We were enthralled with some of the history of Emmett's past and the pioneer community of Oysterville. The sunshine made Fort Canby and Cape Disappointment Lighthouse a wonderful experience. We have a new appreciation of the life saving feats of the Coast Guard from our visit. The maritime museum at Astoria was great. The whole party was extraordinary. Thank you Emmett and Georgia.

Golf. Well we can only assume that some people are not too confident with their title. At least they didn't appear to defend it. Who would have ever thought that the wedding of a daughter would have kept Dick Hollingsworth from defending his low gross? And no Rudy Johnson to attempt to retain his low net title? Is it even possible that Madeline Warnecke was even coerced by Dick to attend the wedding?

Without defenders of the titles, with no trophies to award, with lame excuses all over, we played scramble, even enticed Vi and Joyce to fill in, fined no one, and had a wonderful time. Those truants just missed what the attenders think was a wonderful weekend of golf and fun on the bright and sunny Long Beach Peninsula.

We still remember where the trophies are!

NEXT YEAR: Bill and Mildred Bates has already reserved the Gallery Golf Course at Oak Harbor for June 6 and 7. Get these dates on your calendar now. Then in the fall, Howard and Aurelia Odell will host us at Priest Lake, Idaho. If you've never been to Priest Lake, don't miss it. More later.

Without defenders of the titles, with no trophies to award, with James excuses all over, we played scramble, even enticed VI and Joyce to fill in, fined no one, and had a wonderful time. Those tenants just missed what the attenders think was a wonderful weekend of golf and fun on the bright and sunny Long Beach Peninsula.

We still remember where the trophies are!
