

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 18
 Eaglemont Golf Course, Mount Vernon, WA
 June 5-6, 1994

Taking no chances, Bob and Bonnie Warnecke got a canopy from a graveyard, but it wasn't for W.P.A.'s funeral. It was a good idea though for it did rain a little during dinner - a fatastic meal done by Bonnie using some of the fish Bob catches off their dock on Lake McMurray. That was the start of a great time.

Monday we drove to the golf course with our windshield wipers on. But by tee off time it had stopped. The first couple of groups got off a little early and had mist for a hole or so. The W.P.A. luck held again. 18 times without rain. Eaglemont — Quite mixed reviews. Some never want to see it again; others want to go back and tackle it again. In any event, as group, we played a respectable 1 over (we would have been under had we also used our guests scores). Two women braved Eaglemont and the rest had a good time at Overlook (sometimes overlooking the banks for a ball in the water). It seems about 100 golf balls were left on the course at Eaglemont, nine in a record setting performance by Murray Taylor, wiping out the old record held jointly by Fred Chappell and Joyce Green. Low score and low net were both won by Chuck Genovese with an 87. But look out, our guest and now new member Bob Doyle shot a 78. Next time it will count. Dick Robinson and Madeline Warnecke claimed the fewest putts, 32 and 33 respectfully. Rudy Johnson had closest to the pin on #1 and Bob Doyle on #13. Low net for the women was Aurelia Odell with a 48.

Tuesday, 22 showed up to play scramble at Gateway in Sedro Wooley.

Our guests all joined before they left. Welcome Bob and Win Bainbridge, Bob Doyle, Don and Aileen Johnson.

Thanks Bob and Bonnie - you outdid yourselves.
