

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 19
 Lynnwood Municipal Golf Course, Lynnwood Washington
 September 18-19, 1994

A great project began at the clubhouse in the development where our hosts, Dolph and Shirley Frank, live. A great cocktail party, including pickled garlic as the big hit, was followed by a rather unruly business meeting. Having dinner catered in the clubhouse was a great idea. Dolph and Shirley did a grand job of the whole event.

History was made on the golfcourse. For the first time, we collectively had a sub-par round; 2 under. But, even more astounding, is a member shooting their age. Emmett Oliver, age 79, shot a 79, won low net and strutted home with the trophy. We aren't sure whether he took the ferry or walked across. It was a beautiful day and Bill Bates took advantage of it, spending more time on the beach than anyone, but not a record. Our hole in one fund survived 7 par threes. Chuck Genovese had a new low gross for W.P.A with a 75. Slightly tainted by the par 65 course - but still a record. He also captured Long Drive KP's went to Jack Green(2), Marion Nulle, Wanda Robinson and Emmett Oliver
