

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 22

Skagit Valley Country Club, Burlington, Sept. 10-11, 1995

From the Cocusa Inn to the Farmhouse to Skagit Valley Country Club, Chuck and Marilyn Genovese ran a great organized event. With more last minute changes than ever, its a good thing they were well organized. Thanks to our hosts for a great project. It was so good that two of our guests, the Whitehills and Hunters, became members and the Swansons have returned to regular membership. Despite no especially good individual scores, we, as a group, carded a three under; not bad for us. Jack Green set a new record hitting 4 sandtraps and promptly announced that he was hosting us at a course without any traps. Aurelia Odell won the Womens Award again. Dick Robinson had low net and Chuck Genovese and Don Johnson tied for low gross (their home course).

Scramble the next day was great - especially the marvelous team made up of yours truly, wife Vi, Don and Aileen Johnson, and Jack Green who won the money with a sub-par round.
