

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 23

Glen Eagle Country Club, Arlington Wahington, June 2-3, 1996

Rudy Johnson ran a super show for Number 23. We started in Marysville in a suite with a Jacuzzi almost big enough for all of us. With perfect timing he got us to the restaurant just in time to see the Sonics wrap up a playoff win. Everything was ready for us the next day with carts with our names on them yet. A tricky course that ate some of us up. Good job, Rudy. We fondly remembered Harold Trulson, no doubt playing a heavenly golf course now. We all wished the best for Dick Hollingsworth as he prepared for surgery.

The golf course was pretty, but deceptively difficult, the weather was warm and sunny, and the fellowship was superb. What else could you ask for. As a group we carded a mediocre 1 over par; because of the slow greens, no doubt. The Maxims did well. Gene won low net and was just one behind Chuck Genovese for low gross. Betty won low gross and low net. No new records were reported.
