

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 23
Sun Country Resort, Cle Elum, September 8-10, 1996

Well, it was a long wait. The Green's finally got their chance to host and it was worth waiting for. Sunday was at the Green's "cabin" on the river and dinner at Mama Vollone's, ordering off the menu yet. Great start. Next day, Jack led us in golf on a tricky nine hole course. Almost everyone had a wreck somewhere in the 18. Joyce led the non-golfers on a history tour of Cle Elum-Roslyn. Many raves. After golf, back to Green's for lunch - what a layout. A large contingent played scramble the next day and since we didn't clean up lunch on Monday, we ate the leftovers on Tuesday. Think we still left lunch for Jack and Joyce for the rest of the week. Thanks Joyce and Jack for a great time. Oh yes, the weather was warm and sunny.

As a group we carded a respectable 3 under, despite no individual scores in the 70's. Maxim's guests, Don and Sally West carded some of the better scores which didn't get counted in our group.
