

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 24

Avalon Golf Course, June 8-9, 1997

Don and Aileen Johnson were wonderful hosts for another W.P.A. They had us to their home for a neat time eating barbecued oysters and other assorted goodies on a beautiful sunny afternoon. Some ate enough for a meal, then went to a great dinner at Mark's on Pine Square. Stuffed, we dreamt of great golf scores all night. Monday was a great golf day, sunny and warm. (of course it didn't rain). The course was in good shape. No records were set but our host Don said Aileen told him to just relax and have fun playing golf. so he hit three balls off one tee that there was no point in even thinking about looking for. Our new member, Don West, served notice with a winning low gross of 79. Jack Green had three women in his foursome. He played 20 strokes better than the last time he played Avalon and won low net. What a show off. Betty Maxim and Aurelia Odell shared low net for the women. A first, I think, the foursome of Bainbridge, Frank, Schwartz and Genovese all shot par on the same hole. As a group we were 2 under. I think for the first time ever the group did not have a bogey. Thanks Don and Aileen for a great time! Oh yes, we had a lot of fun on Tuesday with a scramble at Overlook Golf Course.
