

W.P.A. PROJECT NUMBER 25

Apple Tree Golf Course, Yakima, September 7-8, 1997

What a beautiful place for our 25th. The motel on the river, the wagon ride tour of the Toppenish murals, the great view from the club house, the golf course were all superb. Chuck and Marilyn Genovese and their committee did an outstanding job. All are to be congratulated. We will remember W.P.A. Project #25 for a long time. And our string is intact, 25 events without rain. It would have been nice to have held off the wind another day, but then what excuse would we have had for our scores?

As usual, we had some firsts. One guy, Pat Whitehill, played over half the holes with wet pants. No, we already said it didn't rain, and no, it wasn't because his Depends failed. He didn't get the brake set and tipped the cart over in the creek. Jumping out of the way, he sat down in the creek also. We're thankful the result was only wet pants. When someone asked who had lost a club, no one had. Finally after it was brought in and identified as a Titleist, Don West looked at it and said it was his. He still couldn't remember having it out of his bag. Must have just jumped out.

Ho Hum. The men played even par as a group again. Special awards went to Celia Thompson for long drive and closest to the pin. (She also served notice for the future with a low gross of 50). Men's long drive was Morris Warnecke and closest to the pin, Jack Frisk. Yes, these have been noted in the fines.

Extra work went into W.P.A. #25. Chuck and Marilyn Genovese did the major work. Jack and Nona Swanson and Pat and Alta Mae Whitehill rounded out the committee. Jack and Joyce Green helped with accommodations and in arranging for the mural trip. Thanks.
