

W.P.A. Project Number 37

Kayak Point Golf Course

June 22-24, 2003

Great job of hosting by Bob and Cay Bell helped make #37 a memorable event. We had a great time at Bell's beautiful home on the lake and had some wonderful appetizers before we went off to dinner at the Kayak Point Golf Club. Then off to a cool start of golf on Monday, but very soon everyone was stripping down to warm weather style. Tuesday's scramble was fun as always. A great big thanks to Bob and Cay for a great event.

Then there was Chuck Genovese. He only won low gross (tied with Don West) at 83, low net at 73 and became the second person in our history to shoot his age (Emmett Oliver did it first). Way to go Chuck. Then there are those women from Monroe who hogged all the women's stuff. Colleen Carlson with a 96 had low gross and Jeanne Fankhauser had 91 for low net.

Mike Carlson kept up with wife Colleen by winning our first ever putting contest with an 11 under 47. Those of you who missed it missed a fun event

Scramble winners were the team of Bonnie Warnecke, Lois Melville, Don Johnson and Mike Carlson with a 1 over round.

Kayak Point turned out to be a challenging but most enjoyable course. As a group we finished 2 over for our poorest score in some time.
