

W.P.A. Project Number 42

Canyon Lakes Golf Course

Kennewick

September 11, 12, 13, 2005

Mel and Lois Melville took us back to the scene. The hotel again was great, the meals were again outstanding, the fellowship was superb, the weather was outstanding. That made for a great Project No. 42. Mel and Lois, in their usual modest style, tried to say they didn't do much. We know better. Thank you both.

Then there was the challenge. Your bluff was called. Could you not play the course a lot better the second time around? We were all sure we could beat the score we had in the Spring. The success story was Linda Johnson who improved her score more than anyone else. No one else was even close. As a group the men were 1 under par, two strokes worse than the Spring. Seven improved their Spring scores and seven did not. Four women improved their Spring scores and five did not. So much for the theory, "If I could play that course again, I would do a lot better." Maybe better, maybe worse.

The Carlson's hold on the trophies was almost broken. Paul Chaplik stepped up and won both low gross and low net with an 83. Linda Parker scored low net for the women but Colleen Carlson, even scoring higher than last time, still hung on to low gross.

Scramble on Tuesday saw a one under by the team of Lois Melville, of course, Coleen Carlson, Jack Green and Dick Robinson best everyone else.

Thanks Mel and Lois.

Three down and 29 to go in our quest to beat our record for events without rain.
