

W.P.A Project Number 47 Skagit Golf and Country Club Burlington, WA

There are two versions of what happened to our Scramble on Tuesday. However, lest I get ahead of myself we will go back to Sunday. Frank and Nancy Krook hosted a wonderful cocktail hour or so at their home followed by a great dinner at the Skagit Golf and Country Club. We got the scoop on what was to happen on Monday. It was great to see Bob and Bonnie Warnecke, Dick and Nell Hollingsworth, and Bob and Aileen Johnson even though they were not on the playing roster for Monday.

Monday was a cloudy but nice day and the Skagit Country Club was in good shape for our play. The pin placement on the 14th hole will be a topic of discussion in future projects for some time to come. A great day was had by all even though the scores were a little high, even for us. Back to the Krooks for a Dream Dinner put on by Frank and Nancy's daughter, .

Low gross went to Ted Robbins and low net to Jack Fankhauser in the men's division. Low gross went to Coleen Carlson and low net to Nancy Krook in the woman's division. The men shot collectively 4 over, posting only 1 birdie. The women posted a 10 over as a group.

Now as to the thoughts about what happened Tuesday. There are two lines of thought and they both involve Nancy. In any event, it appears that Nancy did a dance Monday night. One version was that it was to celebrate getting the mob out of her house after two evenings of putting up with us, but she got mixed up and did a rain dance. The other version is that she deliberately did a rain dance because she and Frank were behind schedule in their packing for their 5 week trip they left on right after WPA. You can choose your belief about why the rains came down Tuesday morning in quantities that caused a 100% vote to cancel scramble.

Well, back to 0 in our quest to beat the record of 27 rainless events. Matt and Betty Wright will get us back on track, no doubt, September 7,8 and 9.

Thanks Frank and Nancy for a great time.

A big welcome to our new members, Mike and Bette Galloway, Peter and Sally Fleming, and Joanne Knutson. Be sure to get your updated roster.
